Baker gazes across Buffalo Bayou at a similar statue of former President George Washington, which stands as a testament to the city's rich history. The park includes a back garden area and a pedestrian bridge. Stainless steel Cycle Lighting system adds to the splendor of this historic area. As Houston's founding place and original port, Allen's Landing is of unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has been transforming the once abandoned site into a park. A Texas Historical Marker displayed in the park officially designates the East End into the industrial heart of our city. Buffalo Bayou Partnership will be implementing a major master plan along Buffalo Bayou's east sector that will transform the East End into the industrial heart of our city.

In cooperation with its partner Houston First, BBP renovated the historic Sunset Coffee Building at Allen's Landing. The rooftop terrace and plaza that are available for private events. In 1914, the Houston Ship Channel opened to accommodate larger vessels and shipbuilders. William D. Cleveland to house his coffee roasting operations. The Sunset Coffee Building was built in 1910 by merchant Joseph Swain. The building has unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has been recognized with 13 international and local awards since it opened in 2006.

This 22-acre park is the centerpiece of downtown's Theater District and commemorates Houston's 150th birthday in 1986. Built in 1932, Hidalgo Park is a popular East End site for Sunday picnics, birthday parties and baseball games. Neighborhood children also enjoy the park's creative wooden playground and water play station. Among the park's treasures is a statue of Sam Houston, the park's namesake. In 1836, Houston defeated the Mexicans at the Battle of San Jacinto, marking the beginning of Texas's independence from Mexico.

The park features ponds, native plantings, interpretive displays and educational opportunities about wetland ecosystems. The Buffalo Bend Nature Park is a 10-acre site that offers interpretive displays, restored wetland, interpretive displays, and wildlife viewing. The Buffalo Bayou Partnership plans to clean up the creek and plant wildflowers and native trees. Perhaps the finest example of textured concrete artistry in Houston is the historic Buffalo Bayou Partnership.

The Sunset Coffee Building was built in 1910 by merchant Joseph Swain. The building has unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has been recognized with 13 international and local awards since it opened in 2006. William D. Cleveland to house his coffee roasting operations. The Sunset Coffee Building was built in 1910 by merchant Joseph Swain. The building has unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has been recognized with 13 international and local awards since it opened in 2006.

This 22-acre park is the centerpiece of downtown's Theater District and commemorates Houston's 150th birthday in 1986. Built in 1932, Hidalgo Park is a popular East End site for Sunday picnics, birthday parties and baseball games. Neighborhood children also enjoy the park's creative wooden playground and water play station. Among the park's treasures is a statue of Sam Houston, the park's namesake. In 1836, Houston defeated the Mexicans at the Battle of San Jacinto, marking the beginning of Texas's independence from Mexico.

The park features ponds, native plantings, interpretive displays and educational opportunities about wetland ecosystems. The Buffalo Bend Nature Park is a 10-acre site that offers interpretive displays, restored wetland, interpretive displays, and wildlife viewing. The Buffalo Bayou Partnership plans to clean up the creek and plant wildflowers and native trees. Perhaps the finest example of textured concrete artistry in Houston is the historic Buffalo Bayou Partnership.

The Sunset Coffee Building was built in 1910 by merchant Joseph Swain. The building has unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has been recognized with 13 international and local awards since it opened in 2006. William D. Cleveland to house his coffee roasting operations. The Sunset Coffee Building was built in 1910 by merchant Joseph Swain. The building has unique historical significance. Buffalo Bayou Partnership has been recognized with 13 international and local awards since it opened in 2006.

This 22-acre park is the centerpiece of downtown's Theater District and commemorates Houston's 150th birthday in 1986. Built in 1932, Hidalgo Park is a popular East End site for Sunday picnics, birthday parties and baseball games. Neighborhood children also enjoy the park's creative wooden playground and water play station. Among the park's treasures is a statue of Sam Houston, the park's namesake. In 1836, Houston defeated the Mexicans at the Battle of San Jacinto, marking the beginning of Texas's independence from Mexico.

The park features ponds, native plantings, interpretive displays and educational opportunities about wetland ecosystems. The Buffalo Bend Nature Park is a 10-acre site that offers interpretive displays, restored wetland, interpretive displays, and wildlife viewing. The Buffalo Bayou Partnership plans to clean up the creek and plant wildflowers and native trees. Perhaps the finest example of textured concrete artistry in Houston is the historic Buffalo Bayou Partnership.